Description

51-ACRE estate featuring a main residence and an additional structure suitable for personal or office use. The main home built in 1977, provides 2 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms. Its design blends contemporary elements with Alaskan rustic influences, highlighted by a great room with exposed timbers, two fireplaces, and a wet bar. The expansive great room is perfect for entertaining guests. Large windows throughout the home provide panoramic views of surrounding mountain landscape. The home also has 2 additional rooms for a study/office and 2 car garage. The expansive land includes established gardens and a natural spring head in a picturesque valley, suggesting the potential for creating a sizable pond. The property is well-suited for equestrian pursuits or could be developed into a horse farm. Additionally, there are possibilities for subdivision, offering potential for development or conservation. Located 30 minutes north of Greenville, 20 minutes from Greer, and 15 minutes from Travelers Rest. This estate provides serene rural setting and convenient access to nearby amenities!
