Description

PRISTINE and bright end unit condo, 10 minutes from the beach! Ample windows and large glass sliding doors bring the outside inside throughout the living space. Trendy coastal ceramic plank floors throughout the home create continuity in flooring that is beautiful and refreshing! You'll experience a relaxed and homy atmosphere in this spacious condo with its updated fixtures and tasteful neutral color scheme. Granite countertops, stainless steel appliances, and a bar counter for serving friends and gathering family make this kitchen dreamy for serious cooking and simple entertaining alike. The living and dining areas are surprisingly roomy, with additional hang-out space on the screened-in patio with a view of the pool. The 3 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms include a primary suite designed in a split-plan layout that provides privacy for owners and guests. Additional storage space is provided in a generous laundry room off the hallway, as well as a private storage unit in the hallway outside the front door. The building features a clean and comfortable elevator, reflecting the pride of ownership among its residents. Meticulously kept grounds greet you when you drive into the development, partly maintained by the care of owners involved in the vibrant HOA. Cable and internet included in HOA. The community pool is mere steps away and beach access at popular Surfside Beach or Myrtle Beach State Park is only a 10-minute drive away. This condo offers elegance, convenience, a central location, and proximity to great shopping and eateries. Come experience this lovely space in person.
