Description

There simply is no home purchase options in this amazing North Main subdivision at this price with an incredible lot such as this on a family friendly and welcoming Street such as Paris View! So.. do not hesitate to come and see the opportunities this two-bedroom one bath home has! The major value here is of course this incredible level and natural lot with an adjacent city lot that provides extra privacy and a little room to roam and for children at play, etc. The extra land is a wonderful asset to both you and your neighbor! Yes, this home is being sold as is, but that does not mean there is not a ton of value in this home as well! You could easily polish this jewel up and it can shine like a diamond once again! Add a master suite and new kitchen and family room with screened porch off the rear of this home that overlooks this incredibly private, large level lot! The lot truly is absolutely amazing and comes with year-round foliage that blooms throughout the year and is truly a special piece of dirt, come see for yourself! You will not be disappointed in the opportunities this home has with this incredible lot and on this great street in the amazing downtown Greenville, South Carolina North Main location!
