Description

Welcome to your next home. With too many features to list, you are going to have to see 101 Longleaf Drive in Cayce's Moss Creek neighborhood for yourself. Most notably, this home has 4 bedrooms and 2.5 bathrooms with the primary suite on the main, which features an enormous walk in shower and ample closet space. The square footage does not include the finished room over the garage which provides an additional 166 square feet of heated and cooled space. The main level also features a large eat in kitchen with pantry, a formal dining room, a spacious laundry room with countertops for folding and storage and a lovely woodburning stove in the cozy living room. When you step outside you will be amazed at all the fully fenced back yard provides in your own personal oasis. Whether you want to relax in the in ground swimming pool or in the hot tub, on the back patio or under a gazebo or pergola, there are many choices for year around enjoyment. Or maybe you will want to make use of the raised flower beds or the two storage buildings, both with power. The larger storage building is approximately 245 square feet, great for a workshop, man cave or she shed. Conveniently located near I-26 and I-77, and just a short drive to the Columbia Airport, downtown Columbia or the Town of Lexington. Per the seller the roof shingles were replaced in approximately 2022, the HVAC was replaced in approximately 2023 and the pool liner was replaced in 2024, along with several other updates in recent years, making this home truly move in ready.
