Description

This exquisitely renovated 1930s cottage was gutted down to the studs and certain to capture your heart as soon as you see it! Located in Park Circle, walking distance to Triangle Park and only three blocks from some of the top restaurants in Charleston, 1014 Alamo is the perfect place to call home. Outside has been professionally landscaped to include fresh sod and mulch beds, along with locally crafted iron stair railings, adding to the already marveled curb appeal. With three bedrooms and two full bathrooms, it's certain to accommodate your family's needs. The original fireplace hearth is the focal point of the living room, while the original craftsman archway leads you to your dining room and fully equipped kitchen. Stainless steel appliances, quartz countertops, and tiled backsplash ensure durability for all of your culinary ventures. The hall bathroom gives a nod to the home's original character with penny tile flooring and checkerboard tiled wall surrounding the tub and shower. The owner's bedroom has been meticulously reimagined to include its own en-suite bathroom that showcases tiled flooring and a fully tiled shower with a frameless glass door. Dream of having a private home office or maybe even a separate dressing room? This owner suite has it! With seven windows and 9.5 by 12 feet, space and natural lighting will ensure this room is extraordinarily perfect for your desires. Polished brass and gold toned hardware, faucets, and fixtures accentuate the warm invitation to unwind each and every day. Apart from the bathrooms, brand new white oak hardwood floors can be found throughout the entirety of the home-not only allowing for optimal cleaning, but also to preserve the aesthetic of this nearly century old cottage.
