Description

The 2,110 square feet of the Kailani home plan is the epitome of luxury and comfort. A modern twist on traditional coastal South Carolina architecture, this elevated single-family home is designed to maximize your lifestyle. A grand entry is where the upscale experience begins. Ten-foot first-floor ceilings greet you at the door and remain your companion as you head down the main hall into the main-floor living space. Just before entering the hallway, you notice a room at the front of the home. Curiosity moves you further into the room, where you are greeted by a large walk-in closet and a fully-appointed en-suite bathroom. Owners' suite? No. Could it be? Absolutely. This downstairs bedroom is strategically situated opposite the entertaining spaces, allowing for an ideal location for a lower-level retreat space, perfect for guests. Continuing down the hall, you eventually reach the main living space. A dedicated dining space (beautifully sun-kissed by the natural light from a wall of windows) greets you and offers a beautiful line of sight to the oversized covered rear porch. Opposite the dining area is the exceptionally functional gourmet kitchen, complete with an 8-foot island that can seat up to 5 of your closest family & friends. The island sits adjacent to the airy living room, which provides access to and another perfect line of sight to the oversized covered porch. Done with entertaining? The third-floor retreat is the perfect escape designed for comfort and functionality. Bedroom 3 is situated at the front of the home, close to the upstairs laundry room and full hall bathroom, while bedroom 2 is positioned closer to the owners' suite. Still far enough away for privacy, the grand owners' suite is tucked away just around the corner from bedroom two. The lofty 9-foot ceilings carry you effortlessly through the space, allowing you to breeze by a large walk-in closet, an accessible covered rear balcony, and an abundance of windows. The owner's bathroom features a dual vanity sink, a freestanding tub, and access to a second walk-in closet.
