Description

Fully Renovated 1930s Charleston Single in the Heart of Downtown Nestled in the vibrant Westside neighborhood of Downtown Charleston, this beautifully renovated 1930s Charleston Single offers the perfect blend of historic charm and modern upgrades. Fully updated from the ground up in 2016, this home is move-in ready and packed with thoughtful details. Step inside to a light-filled interior featuring a stunning chef's kitchen with KitchenAid stainless steel appliances, a classic subway tile backsplash, and luxurious quartz countertops. The open floor plan flows effortlessly, with curated Schoolhouse Electric fixtures throughout, adding a stylish, high-end touch. Upstairs, enjoy golden hour views from the porch, the perfect spot to catch a Charleston sunset. The spacious fenced-in backyard has a large concrete patio and professionally-installed turf ideal for relaxing or entertaining. Located on a desirable strip of high ground in an X flood zone meaning no flood insurance is required you'll enjoy peace of mind along with unbeatable access to everything downtown has to offer. Walk to neighborhood favorites like Leon's, Melfi's, and the upper King Street dining scene. Catch a game at Joe Riley Stadium or explore Hampton Park, all just a short stroll away. Quick access to the Crosstown makes commuting to West Ashley or Mt. Pleasant a breeze. Additional highlights include generous storage for a historic home, including a large attic and a versatile closet/pantry off the living room, and a spacious walk-in closet upstairs. This quiet, family-friendly street is growing and thriving don't miss your chance to own a piece of Charleston history with all the comforts of modern living.
