Description

Charming one story home in Goose Creek, South Carolina, this 3-bedroom, 2-bathroom home situated in the peaceful cul-de-sac of The Commons in Crowfield. Built in 1985 and recently updated, this 1,202-square-foot residence features a newer roof, luxury vinyl plank flooring. The living area is highlighted by a vaulted ceiling and a cozy brick wood-burning fireplace, seamlessly flowing into the dining room and kitchen, creating an inviting space for both relaxation and entertaining. Both bathrooms have been tastefully updated in recent years, and the backyard offers a private retreat with a fenced-in yard and a natural wood buffer, ensuring tranquility. Conveniently located near major employers, the home is approximately 15 miles from Joint Base Charleston, 18 miles from Boeing's aircraft manufacturing plant, 14 miles from Robert Bosch LLC, and 20 miles from the Medical University of South Carolina, making it an excellent choice for professionals in various industries. In addition to its ideal location near employment hubs, 103 York Place is just 20 miles north of downtown Charleston, offering easy access via I-26 E for a commute of approximately 30 minutes. Residents can enjoy the best of both worlds- peaceful suburban living with quick access to the rich history, dining, and entertainment of Charleston. The single car garage will be helpful for parking or storage. With its modern updates, thoughtful layout, and prime location near key employers and downtown Charleston, this home is a fantastic opportunity for those seeking a balance between work and lifestyle in the Lowcountry.
