Description

One of a kind opportunity! This property can be a private home, event venue / outdoor retail establishment or both. Originally built in 1900 this home was completely gutted and renovated in 2002 -03. The chef's kitchen boast all top of the line appliances and opens to a large dining room. Upon entering the home, there is a two story foyer that opens into a living room / den with a cozy gas fire place. Further through the foyer you will find a guest bedroom with full bath that could also serve as an office. Finally you step out onto a private patio with a large fire pit. The upstairs features 2 master suites. Formerly known as Lenora's Legacy, this property is a ready to move in home and or ready to go event venue. There is a unique stand alone building copied from a turn of the century store that could be a gift shop, man cave, she shed or office. The huge pavilion provides 4,900 sf under roof with stage, raised event floor and multi stall men's and women's restrooms. A custom-built gazebo with 625' under roof is the center point of the property providing additional space to entertain. All of this is framed with mature landscaping providing a true garden feel. One half acre of surfaced parking and an additional 2.5 acres of overflow pasture there is ample space to hold large events or just a few friends.
