Description

* Back on Market * Welcome to 106 Gayle St, a single story three bedroom, two full bathroom home on a quiet street in a well maintained neighborhood tucked away on the north side of Piedmont, just 20 minutes from downtown Greenville. Situated on a sizeable lot, the property includes a large outbuilding with endless potential to be utilized as a workshop, garage, or storage. Workshop is on separate electrical meter. It is especially accessible via the large, circular driveway that runs behind the home. Inside the home, the living area opens to the kitchen and dining areas, an open concept dream. The generously sized primary bedroom with ensuite bathroom with shower and a sizeable closet is situated at the back corner of the home beyond the laundry, full hall bath and additional two bedrooms, providing all the privacy you need. This all brick home with a metal roof provides a solid structure for a new owner to move in right away, or make updates to suit their design dreams. Previously utilized as a long term rental, this property may also be enjoyed as a profitable investment. Schedule your showing today to experience the possibilities.
