Description

Welcome home to this rare, hard to find, one level, updated brick rancher in one of Irmo's most desired neighbourhoods. 107 Southwell Road has all new floors, new paint throughout, new countertops, and a newer HVAC unit. This spacious home has an open floor plan where the main living space flows effortlessly from room to room. The layout includes a very large dining room with vaulted ceilings and a living room that features a gas fireplace as a central focus, and plenty of storage. The large galley kitchen has a multitude of cabinets, lots of counter space, two sinks, and opens to both the breakfast room and the dining room, for ease of cooking, dining, and entertaining. With three large bedrooms, two full baths, and a huge master suit that includes a five piece ensuite and a large walk in closet, you can make this the first, or last home you'll ever desire. It really has everything you need, and just the perfect forever home. Book your showing today and come experience the charm of the Whitehall community in Irmo which is just 10 minutes to shops and restaurants on Harbison Blvd., and a few minutes to both I-20 and I-26!
