Description

A rare find in historic downtown Beaufort, this new luxury construction of a waterfront townhome includes a rooftop terrace showcasing a clear view of the Intracoastal Waterway from Main Street. Take a short walk to casual and fine dining, shops, and seasonal activities at Waterfront Park. This quiet escape enjoys spectacular finishes from the gourmet kitchen with Thermador appliances, custom cabinets, and Cambria quartz countertops to the top-level entertainment space with a mini kitchen and bath. Bi-fold doors allow your indoor living spaces to blend with the outdoors seamlessly. The home features three bedrooms with ensuite baths plus two half baths, large windows throughout, a fireplace, and a private elevator to all four floors, complete with a private two-car garage with enclosed storage space. The side garden and your row of Palmetto trees add landscaped greenspace to enjoy as your guests can stroll this way for the front entry. One of only three townhouses in this space, this end unit captures the view and the privacy you want. Property is in an X flood zone per federal flood zone maps.
