Description

Live the Charleston Resort Lifestyle - Now Offered at $820,000 Welcome to Freeman's Point, James Island's premier waterfront community--and the only neighborhood on the island with both a private boat launch and a resort-style pool overlooking scenic Seaside Creek. This rare opportunity blends luxury living with the unmatched charm of the Lowcountry, all just 10 minutes from Folly Beach and 15 minutes from downtown Charleston. Tucked away on a quiet street, this 4-bedroom, 3.5-bath home offers upscale finishes, smart upgrades, and one of the most desirable locations in Charleston. You'll enjoy: Two primary suites, one on each floor, both with dual vanities and walk-in closets Stylish design details including oak wood flooring, shiplap accents, custom doors, marble countertops, and upgraded lighting. Gourmet kitchen with soft-close drawers and modern appliances. Tiled showers (no builder-grade inserts), a tankless water heater, and quality craftsmanship throughout. Double front porches and additional rear porches for relaxing or entertaining. A detached two-car garage, perfect for vehicles, kayaks, or weekend toys. But the real magic is in the community lifestyle. Enjoy private neighborhood amenities including: Resort-style pool with water views; Private boat ramp, two docks, and a kayak launch; Seaside Creek access for fishing, crabbing, paddling, swimming, or dolphin-watching; Green spaces, a dog park, playground, bocce court, fire pit, and a covered pavilion with fireplace; Sidewalks throughout (a rare luxury on James Island). This is more than a home it's a lifestyle! Here, neighbors gather on the docks, around the fire pit, or at the pool, creating a real sense of community. And when you want to stay close to home, you'll find Publix, Walmart, Lowes, and local restaurants just minutes away. Whether you're seeking adventure on the water, quiet mornings on the porch, or easy access to Charleston's best offerings, this home delivers it all with quality, style, and unbeatable value. Don't miss this rare chance to live in one of Charleston's most amenity-rich neighborhoods. Come experience what Lowcountry living is truly meant to be.
