Description

Rarely does a unique property like this become available on Paris Mountain. Privacy with a private street leading to the paved driveway which has a beautiful custom built stone wall running up one side of the driveway. Once on top you will experience breathtaking views south towards Greenville and Southwest towards Georgia. Cleared building site where the former house used to be. Natural spring flows over a small waterfall into a custom stone pond with fountain creating a peaceful place to sit and enjoy the sunsets. Private easement comes down from Altamont Road providing city water. Septic already in place. Bring your building plans and get started living the dream only few will ever be able to enjoy. Shown by appointment only.
