Description

What's better than a blank canvas...? I would say those connect the dot pictures we had as kids! Why? Because with a blank canvas you have too many options, so many, that sometimes you just get stuck. But, with the connect the dot images, the base(layout) is already there, you just need to follow the numbers, and you have a complete picture. And sure, you can add in your own flare by changing the colors of the markers you use to connect the dots, but you won't get bogged down trying to create. And that my friends, is what you have in 120 Carol Dr. You have your base, your layout, the footprint of your home, now all you need to come in and do, is add your personal touches. You can swap out the floors or refinish the beautiful hardwoods. Or maybe you want to open a wall so that your kitchen flows directly into your dining room into your living room. Or maybe you have always wanted a large walk-in shower with multiple shower heads hitting from all directions, well the dots are here, you just need to connect them to your liking. Whether you are looking for a home in an established neighborhood to be your first project or your 50th project 120 Carol Dr is your shot, your opportunity, your moment, will you capture it or just let it slip?
