Description

This spacious three-bedroom, two-bathroom condo is located in the charming Smythe Park neighborhood of beautiful Daniel Island. As you enter the foyer with a convenient drop zone from your front porch, you will access your second-floor unit. The living and dining area is large and filled with natural light and the kitchen bar adds additional seating. Just off the dining room is a balcony where you can relax and enjoy your lovely views of the greenery below. All kitchen appliances are included, and the laundry room, located off the hallway, comes with a washer and dryer. There are two generously sized guest rooms. Tucked away at the back of the condo is a spacious master suite that includes a walk-in closet and a private bathroom. Just a short walk away, you'll find Daniel Island School and the scenic Smythe Park. This charming community offers resort-style amenities exclusive to residents, including a gazebo, fire pit, tables, and built-in grills. You will also have access to all three pools on Daniel Island, as well as tennis courts, dog parks, and fishing ponds. Additionally, there are plenty of shopping and dining options nearby, along with waterfront parks and local concerts at Capital One Stadium. Plus, you will have easy access to downtown Charleston and all its local activities. Check out events on the Daniel Island website.
