Description

Anderson School District One! This immaculately maintained three bedroom, two bath mobile home is sure to catch your eye! With a craftsman style design and open floor plan, this home will not last long. Enter the front door to high ceilings and a grand living room complete with an electric fireplace, an intricate bricked mantel and beams installed overhead. Off of the living room, you will find the focal point of the home, a gloriously designed kitchen with tons of cabinetry and a spacious and matching, center island, with pendant lighting, a deep farm style sink and tons of built-ins. This kitchen is functional with unique brick work over the stove and food prep area and has stainless steel appliances that will all remain. Off of the dining room, is a spacious breakfast area with tons of natural light. Step into the laundry room and see all the extra room for dry storage and room for hanging clothing as well as the deep sink for extra laundry duties. Cabinets also complete this room and there is a utility area within the laundry as well as a coat and storage nook, complete with drawers. In the center of the home, yet very private, sits the master bedroom suite with a spacious walk-in closet within the master bath. The bathroom has an oversized shower, partially glassed, that is perfect for someone who needs a walk-in and could be easily adapted for handicap needs. The bathroom also has a large garden tub, two sinks, built-ins and cabinetry as well as a separate toilet room. At the other end of the home, sits a large hall bath with two spacious bedrooms. The backyard is level and an open canvas for landscaping and use. Make your appointment to see this beautiful home today!
