Description

Come escape to the lakeside community of Manning, South Carolina, where large lots and easy access to public boat landings are what make this community special. This home is like brand new, built in 2024, and is perfectly situated on a .75 acre lot with a heavy tree buffer in the rear. The small community offers waterfront homes making this a picturesque place to call home. The current owner has been running a successful AirBNB, an attractive option if you want a second home at the lake. At roughly a mile to the public access of Lake Marion, you can have your boat in the water in minutes. When you are not boating or fishing, enjoy the convenience of being minutes to the downtown area of Manning or take a longer drive into the town of Florence or Lake City. Adventures are everywhere. The home can also be sold furnished. When you see the property and the interior upgrades, you will understand why this home boasts a 5* review. The semi-open floor plan offers a large living room and open dining area with a semi-open kitchen that features a center island, range, dishwasher and plenty of cabinet and counter space. You will love the split owner's suite with its spacious bathroom that offers a tub/shower combo and walk-in closet. The back deck and the fire pit area in the backyard are the perfect places to enjoy the stars in the sky. Come see what Manning has to offer and make this peaceful retreat a home on your list. Currently rents for $115-$137 a night as an AirBNB.
