Description

Feel the history as you walk up the stairs to the front porch and step through the beautiful front door of this light-filled 1880 Charleston bungalow! High ceilings, heart pine floors, and architectural details lend timeless character to the original home. A thoughtfully designed 2008 addition brings modern comfort, featuring a spacious primary suite with a beamed cathedral ceiling and French doors that open to the large backyard. The addition also included a full bath with double sinks, a hallway, pantry, and laundry room with direct access to the backyard. The renovated kitchen features a BlueStar gas range and stylish finishes that will inspire anyone who loves to cook. The front room, just off the living area, has served as both a bedroom and an office, though it does not include a closet. It shares a full bathroom with the second bedroom, making it a flexible and functional space for guests or home office use. The spacious, private backyard offers a peaceful retreat perfect for morning coffee or evening gatherings. The handsome pergola creates an inviting outdoor space for dining or relaxing. Well-designed architectural plans, approved by Charleston's Board of Architectural Review (BAR), are available and include a desirable garage and large covered back porch—an exciting opportunity to expand this already exceptional home. Harleston Village is one of Charleston's most desirable neighborhoods just steps from Colonial Lake, tennis and pickleball courts, dog parks, the Ashley Marina, and The Battery. It's close to MUSC, the College of Charleston, grocery stores, shops, restaurants, and all the charm and culture downtown has to offer. (Washer and dryer do not convey.) The information herein is furnished to the best of the Listing Agent's knowledge but is subject to verification by the purchaser and their agent.
