Description

This stunning coastal living home is featured in James Island's premier waterfront community of Freeman's point. Just minutes to Folly Beach and historic downtown Charleston. Freeman's Point has every amenity from fishing/crabbing dock, boat ramp, swimming pool, dog park, walking trails, playground and stunning views all around. You will feel like you are on vacation every day. Live with all luxury the Low Country has to offer. The curb appeal of this home is unmatched with its large front porch, gorgeous pavers and elevated Construction. Its unique glass doors allow this home so much natural light. As you enter you are greeted by the warm living room centered around the shiplap fireplace. The living room effortlessly flows into the dining room and gourmet kitchen. The large pantry, dropzone, office is all located on the first floor. Just a few steps up is the half bath. Upstairs holds all three bedrooms. The primary bedroom and bath have all the details you are looking for. It is private and large. The lot is one of the larger lots in this community and has a paved back space for entertaining. The elevated construction allows the owners to store the boat and truck. Keep all your toys close by. This home has it all.
