Description

Privately sited on 54 acres with long-range mountain views, this equestrian property offers a rare opportunity in the heart of horse country. A gated entrance leads to the 2BR/2BA main home and a separate guest cabin, both nestled among rolling pasture and mature trees. The main house features brick, slate, and hardwood flooring throughout—offering warmth, durability, and timeless appeal. The guest cabin adds charm with timber ceilings and copper countertops, perfect for visitors, rental income, or a farm manager. The 6-stall barn includes a wash stall, feed room, and tack room, with multiple fenced pastures. While some areas may invite updating, the property's layout, location, and scale make it an excellent opportunity for buyers looking for a rare chance to shape a legacy property in one of the area's most desirable equestrian corridors.
