Description

Motivated seller! This full brick ranch home is situated in a park setting overlooking the 2-acre stocked pond. Very few properties like this around. Sit back sipping what ever on the deck and say to yourself, this is all mine! If you didn't want so much park like setting, this property includes five separate parcels and you could easily sell off parcels to paydown the home on just a few acres. In the past two years many thousands of dollars were spent clearing the property. If someone wants to build on the property, the land is already cleared which is a huge savings. To really appreciate this property, you need to view it in person. The home is very well cared for and with a cash deal,, could close very quickly. Real Estate is a great investment unlike the stock market lately!
