Description

Fresh from the pages of a magazine, this home has been updated with all the top picks in housing! NEW ROOF added November 2024. This 4 bedroom, 2.5 bath home will be your paradise for years to come. You'll love the covered front porch with a mix of stone that adds to the craftsman style of the home. Through the door you are drawn to the open floor plan that shares space between the living room, breakfast nook, and beautifully remodeled kitchen. The earth tones of the luxury LVP flooring throughout brings warmth to the home. The oversized living area is perfectly positioned to enjoy the fireplace, remain separate from the kitchen, yet keep everyone together. There is a spacious breakfast nook that opens onto the expansive 14x21 screen porch with breathtaking tranquil views. The kitchen is Pinterest-worthy. Clean, crisp white cabinets, stainless appliances, white herringbone backsplash and classic white quartz counters, this kitchen could only get better if it included accents of gold. Oh WAIT, it does! Timeless gold hardware, farmhouse style lighting and a dark toned center serving-island complete the look. Sealing the deal may just be a peek inside the laundry area which has, of course, also been updated with vibrant colored flooring. Gorgeous wallpaper in the half bath.... you just have to see for yourself! Love! Upstairs are 4 bedrooms including the master, but there are so many options with this layout! The master bedroom is large with its private bath featuring a garden tub, separate shower, and a huge walk-in closet. Double vanity area and plenty of counter space and storage. Two additional bedrooms share a hall bath which also offers ample space for everyone to get ready during the morning rush. The fourth bedroom is quite the add! This space is the perfect match for any and all of your needs, now and in the future. Need a home office? Playroom? Just looking for a place to store all of the exercise equipment? Does honey need their own hang out space? HERE you have it! Although it's hard to top the interior of the home... Let's step out onto the HUGE 14x21 screened porch! Enjoy time outdoors even on rainy days! Overlooking your flat, LARGE park-like backyard with no homes behind, this area might become your second favorite place to spend time! The backyard is landscaped immaculately with a recently enlarged concrete patio, new plants, trees, and rock garden- truly the best option for low-maintenance outdoor living. Newly added storageshed for all of your outdoor equipment. Fenced yard, cul-de-sac location, popular neighborhood with amenities, and located in award-winning Powdersville School district. This home is stunning. Come make it yours!
