Description

Just steps from Colonial Lake and a short walk to Charleston's iconic Battery, this ideally located home offers the perfect blend of historic charm and modern convenience. In the heart of downtown Charleston, enjoy easy access to neighborhood favorites like Burbage's Grocery, nearby tennis courts, and some of the city's most scenic walking trails. This classic Charleston residence features a welcoming front porch, an elegant side piazza, and a peaceful back porch that's ideal for enjoying the Lowcountry's mild climate. Inside, high ceilings and abundant natural light highlight timeless architectural details, including floor-to-ceiling windows in the dining room that open beautifully to the piazza for effortless indoor-outdoor living. A rare find downtown, the property offers ample parking with two private driveways, an uncommon convenience in this highly sought-after area. A detached workshop adds valuable storage or a flexible use space, while the landscaped yard enhances the home's charm and functionality. This is a unique opportunity to own a beautiful Charleston home in a prime location.
