Description

Summer will be here before you know it! A highlight of this home is a saltwater pool to enjoy this summer that is extremely low cost and low maintenance. And a brand new 20x40 barn for all the outdoor things! And at the end of the day gather round the fire pit and enjoy the evening as the sun goes down. This beautifully preserved and updated home blends timeless elegance with modern comforts, nestled on over two acres. 151 Strickland Drive boasts classic architectural details that speak to its storied past, while providing the perfect canvas for today's updated lifestyle. This home features expansive rooms with tall ceilings and hardwood floors. The spacious layout includes a huge living room, large dining area in the updated kitchen, and cozy family room, each offering plenty of natural light and a welcoming atmosphere. The kitchen has been thoughtfully updated to balance modern convenience with the home's historic charm. Whether you're hosting gatherings or enjoying quiet meals, the kitchen is a delightful space. Upstairs, the home offers 2 generously sized bedrooms and full bathroom. Enjoy the peaceful surroundings from the front porch or explore the expansive backyard, perfect for both relaxation and recreation. Above the two car carport there is an area to add more space for storage or living. The possibilities are endless. Located just minutes from local amenities, schools, and major roads, 151 Strickland Drive is an ideal blend of historic charm and modern-day convenience. This home presents an opportunity to own a piece of Roebuck's rich history while making it your own. Don't miss your chance to make this stunning, one-of-a-kind property your forever home.
