Description

This stunning custom built craftsman style home on 13.35 acres comes FULLY FURNISHED and is an absolute must see. The home is tucked back off the road behind a gated entrance with a long concrete driveway and a huge rocking chair front porch. It is surrounded by lush level pasture, ready for you to fence in and bring your horses! Already in place is a 32x42 metal building with 2 garage doors, a workshop and 2 14x42 sheds on either side. Built in 2015, the one and a half story home has a rustic log cabin interior with a two story living room, lots of windows, a sunroom and a desirable open concept design. You'll find gorgeous hickory hardwood floors and handsome knotty pine boards on the walls and ceilings. The living room is complete with a two story stone fireplace with gas logs. The kitchen has ample cabinet and counter space and boasts a large kitchen sink with a beautiful view into the back yard. Step out through the dining area into the sun room which includes tinted windows and a lovely view of the backyard and the koi pond with water fountain. The primary bedroom is located on the main floor and is equipped with a huge walk in closet and an ensuite bathroom with double sink vanities, separate shower and a corner jetted tub. The laundry room/mud room is also on the lower level and opens into a 10x11 pantry/storage closet. As you walk upstairs, you'll notice a hand carved cedar stair railing leading you up to the 12x23' loft. A full bedroom with walk-in closet and a nice sized full bathroom are located to the right of the loft. To the left of the loft, you'll find a 674 sqft unfinished room which the owners used for storage but could easily be finished off into a 3rd bedroom. The home is equipped with high end windows which are vinyl on the exterior and wood on the interior, a whole house generator and 2 propane tanks (for tankless water heater, fireplace and generator). Home is in Cherokee county but zoned for Spartanburg county schools. If you love history or taking long walks through the woods, you will love that this home is walking distance to the Cowpens National Battlefield Park which offers nearly 800 acres to explore! Don't delay to schedule your private showing to see this pristine home and property.
