Description

Nestled on one of Charleston's oldest streets, 154 Tradd Street beautifully blends historic charm with modern elegance through thoughtful renovations. Recognized by the Preservation Society of Charleston for its historical significance, this home offers unparalleled access to iconic sites like King Street shopping, the Battery, and Colonial Lake. The home features fully renovated kitchen, separate dining room, living room with fireplace using gas logs and study and 1/2 bath on first floor. Second floor features guest bedroom with access to porch, hall bath and master suite with multiple closets, exposed non working brick fireplace and private bath with shower. Lovely brick courtyard with mature landscaping and fountain lit by landscaping lights and off street parking.
