Built in 2008 and thoughtfully renovated, this home features a modern kitchen equipped with all the essentials for contemporary living. The ground level offers a spacious tandem two-car garage, running the length of the home, with additional storage space for ultimate functionality. On the main living level, a semi-open floor plan seamlessly connects the dedicated dining area, bar-style seating counter, and a spacious living room. Natural light pours in, creating an inviting atmosphere, while the private deck off the living room provides the perfect spot to take in breathtaking marsh views especially at sunset. A guest bedroom and full bathroom on this level offer flexibility, whether used as a private guest suite or a convenient main-level primary bedroom. Upstairs, the second interior story is home to another guest bedroom and full bathroom, along with the expansive primary suite.
