Description

This adorable cottage is fully renovated and perfect for a buyer who wants to experience the best that Charleston has to offer. Perfectly situated between Downtown Charleston and Folly Beach, you are never far from the sights of downtown or the serene retreat of the beach. Additionally, this home sits on a nicely sized lot beneath a grand oak tree and is flanked by large, established azalea bushes. Inside, you will find bright white walls and meticulously chosen neutral finishes. With an open living, dining, and kitchen area leading to the back porch, the home is great for entertaining or everyday living. The kitchen offers a central island, gas range, stainless steel appliances, and a stylish tile backsplash. The spacious primary bedroom features dual closets and vanities, along with a large walk-in shower adorned with marble herringbone floor tile, gray subway wall tile, and a sleek glass shower door. The second bathroom includes classic white subway tile and striking dark penny tiles. To top it all off, the home has updated plumbing and electric, and a new roof ensuring low maintenance living and peace of mind. With all of this offered in single-story living, this home is the perfect option for a multitude of buyers.
