Description

Charming Renovated 1940's Cottage on the West Ashley Greenway - Over Half an Acre of Beauty
Welcome to your dream home--a lovingly restored 1950s cottage nestled on over half an acre along the scenic West Ashley Greenway. This unique property blends classic charm with modern comfort, offering 4 spacious bedrooms and 3 full baths across a beautifully updated interior. Inside, you will find a thoughtful renovation that preserves vintage character while adding today's must-have features. The heart of the home opens to a sun-drenched living area, a modern kitchen, and a full dining room. Step outside and enjoy a backyard built for connection and creativity. Whether you are gathered around the custom fire pit, tending your raised garden beds, or simply relaxing under the stars, ... this outdoor oasis invites you to slow down and stay a while. A standout feature of this property is the detached shed, featuring a fully finished upstairs apartment with its own bathroom, HVAC, and electrical which is being used now as a serene home office. The downstairs workshop is perfect for DIY enthusiasts, artists, or weekend tinkerers. Additional highlights include a two-car carport, mature trees offering shade and privacy, and direct access to walking, biking, and nature via the Greenway. This rare find offers the perfect blend of timeless style, thoughtful updates, and room to grow all in the heart of West Ashley.
