Description

Come see this beautifully maintained two-bedroom, two-bath condo in the highly sought-after Regatta on James Island. The covered, off-street parking will keep you out of the elements, and the nearby elevator makes accessing your condo a breeze. This condo is conveniently located on the first level of this gated community. As you enter the front door, you'll find an open floor plan; kitchen, living room, and dining area. Just off the living space is access to a gorgeous screened porch, perfect for enjoying Charleston weather. On either side of the living space are the two bedrooms, each with its own bathroom. The primary bedroom has an ensuite bathroom, a pass-through closet, and ceiling fans installed. This condo is minutes from Downtown Charleston, shopping, restaurants, and the beaches. With a short drive in any direction, convenience is abundant.
