Description

This Property's prime location is its most significant asset. Situated on approximately (0.93 acres) of land, this charming cottage backs into Tobias Gadson Boulevard. The three-bedroom, one-bathroom home is ripe for a new owner to add their personal flair. Additionally, the property may be subdivided, offering an attractive opportunity for buyers, investors, and agents. Conducting thorough research is highly recommended. The provided listing information is accurate to the best of the listing Agent's knowledge but requires verification by the purchaser and their agent. The Listing Agent assumes no responsibility for the accuracy of the information or the property's condition. Verification of square footage, schools, and other vital information is strongly advised.
