Description

Discover 19 Adger Street, a fully refreshed two-bedroom, one-bath cottage just minutes from downtown Greenville and only a brief three-minute drive from Prisma Health Greenville Memorial Hospital. Inside, bright white walls and wood-look vinyl plank flooring lead you to a sunlit living room with three windows and an elegant arched opening into the updated kitchen—complete with crisp white upper cabinets, deep-gray lower cabinets, granite countertops, and a classic subway-tile backsplash. A convenient back door off the kitchen opens onto the yard, and adjacent, a combined dining and laundry nook offers washer/dryer hookups. Both bedrooms enjoy ample natural light and generous closet space, while the bathroom features neutral tile flooring and a tub/shower combination. Outside, crisp vinyl siding and black shutters frame a stone-chip driveway with stepping-stone accents and a sprawling, fully fenced backyard—ideal for gardening or play. With its turnkey condition, effortless access to restaurants, shops, the Swamp Rabbit Trail, and the region’s premier medical center, this charming home is ready for you to move in and start enjoying Greenville living.
