Description

Welcome to "Elegance at Elevation", eastern facing views at 2300 ft at Glassy Mountain. Specially named "Little Bear Lodge", this unique-stylized Luxury home will capture your heart at the front door. In the courtyard you begin your tour with the sight and sound beauty of a cascading water feature bringing nature right to the front door of this home! As you enter this lavish post and beam style home take in the grandeur of the floor to ceiling rock fireplace, cathedral ceiling wood beams, and a beautifully situated open floor plan showing the entertainment capacity of this home. The custom wine bar off the foyer is an invitation to unwind, complete with sleek cabinetry and a built-in wine fridge. The great room offers an expansive hearth and ample seating, fostering warmth and connection. Flow seamlessly into the dining room, where a handcrafted teak table from Bali and a serene wall waterfall create an intimate ambiance—both remain with the home. The chef's kitchen is a showpiece, boasting a grand Magma Gold leather-finished granite island ideal for hosting, meal prep, or casual dining. Suspended above are imported Italian pendant lights, adding an artistic touch to the space. Step through the art gallery hallway into the private primary retreat, featuring a luxurious bath, a private IPE deck with a sauna, and breathtaking mountain views—a spa-like experience every night. This home embraces indoor-outdoor living with five IPE deck spaces, besides the Primary suite deck and lower level walkout deck, another contains the outdoor kitchen, complete with cabinetry and grill, Infinity hot tub, and luxury seating area, all overlooking Hogback Mountain. The fifth IPE deck area is a 3 season room with retractable screens for bug free dining, open air dining, and covered with wood burning fireplace. Dinner by candlelight and firelight achieved in abundance! The upper loft provides an office space, storage, and a charming bungalow bed overlooking the Great Lodge Room. On the lower level, the luxury continues with a family room, rock fireplace, custom onyx bar with underlighting, and locally crafted steel doors for the wine room. This space also includes a game room, two guest bedrooms with full baths, and two additional deck spaces—one for intimate relaxation, the other featuring a firepit for crisp mountain evenings. Guests will love the 5 Star resort-style experience and enjoy the natural setting the mountain exudes. There is also a large unfinished storage space on this level as well. A Cliffs Membership is available at varying levels with the purchase of this home. With membership comes benefits for golf, the clubhouse, swimming pool, pickleball courts, walking trails, and much more, including the outstanding amenities at all 7 Cliffs communities: mountain, lake, and Asheville, NC.
