Description

Welcome to 201 Knollview Drive, a spacious home nestled in a quiet neighborhood. This motivated seller offers a 3 bedroom, 2.5 bath residence offers approximately 2,400 square feet of comfortable living space, thoughtfully designed with an open floor plan and stylish updates throughout, ideal for both daily living and entertaining. The heart of the home is the remodeled kitchen, complete with ample cabinetry, beautiful countertops, a dining area, and stainless steel appliances (all of which convey). Adjacent to the dining area is an inviting screened-in porch that offers a serene spot to relax while overlooking the picturesque subdivision. The massive primary bedroom is a true retreat, featuring a luxurious en suite bath with double sinks, a walk-in closet, a separate shower, and a grand garden tub. Downstairs, you'll find two additional generously sized bedrooms, each with large closets and a shared full bath—perfect for family, guests, or a home office setup. Throughout the home, you'll find hardwood or ceramic tile flooring—no carpet in sight. The fully fenced half-acre yard adds an extra layer of privacy and security, ideal for children, pets, or outdoor gatherings. Conveniently located just minutes from both I-85 and downtown Greenville, and within easy reach of downtown Easley, this home offers the perfect balance of access and tranquility. If you're looking for space, style, and comfort in a prime Upstate location—without the restrictions of an HOA—this home is a must-see.
