Description

You will not want to miss your opportunity to live so close to downtown Easley, the Silos, and the Doodle Trail. This charming home has been updated while keeping many original features that make an older home unique. Both bedrooms are very graciously sized and have a new carpet being installed this month. The open living, dining, and kitchen are great for entertaining and easy living. A large laundry/mudroom is on the back of the home, making for convenience. The house is directly across from a park so lots of green space at your front door! Schedule your showing today!
