Description

Located in one of Summerville's most desirable neighborhoods, this neo-traditional Charleston style home is just dripping with southern charm. The first floor features a spacious kitchen that looks over a large family room, formal dining room, a half bath, and a flex space currently used as a home office. Upstairs features a large primary suite with it's own private balcony, as well as 2 amply sized guest rooms and full guest bath. In back, you'll have plenty of parking options with a 2 car detached garage, in addition to a single car parking pad. Community amenities include a neighborhood pool, tennis courts, long walking trails, and several playgrounds.
