Description

Come add your own red rocking chairs to this historic home on the front porch of the lowcountry! Appraisal in hand and listed below market value. The main structure contains two units and there is one smaller detached cottage at the back of the property. Home is being sold as is seller to make no repairs. Would make an excellent multi unit rental. Conveniently located downtown in the heart of the historic district on a quiet street. Just minutes from the University of SC Salkehatchie, East Campus as well as down town shops and restraunts.
