Description

This charming 1970s-built brick ranch in the desirable Newington Plantation neighborhood offers a solid foundation for its next owners, though it is in need of some updates and repairs. The home features classic brick exterior with a traditional layout, ideal for family living. Inside, you'll find a spacious family room that provides ample room for gathering, along with a cozy den, offering additional living space for relaxation or entertainment. The living room is bright and welcoming, offering a flexible area that could be transformed into a formal dining space or used as a more casual living area. The one-car garage adds convenience, providing shelter for your vehicle and additional storage space, while the shed out back offers even more room for tools, lawn equipment, or hobbies.
