Description

Originally built in 1840 and later converted into 5 condo units, this 2nd floor, two-bedroom, one-bath condo beautifully blends historic charm with modern updates. Sold furnished this home features a spacious Piazza porch, perfect for enjoying the Lowcountry weather. Renovated in 2005, it boasts granite kitchen countertops, stainless steel appliances, a tiled shower, and dual vanity sinks. The original wood floors and exposed brick fireplace (non-working) preserve its historic character. This condo also includes a highly sought-after dedicated parking space, a rare find in downtown Charleston. Located just moments from the College of Charleston and MUSC.
