Description

Amazing opportunity in a developing area approximately 1000 feet from the Givhans Ferry State Park which consists of more than 1000 acres along the gorgeous Edisto River. The property does have a mobile home on the property and a well and septic already in place. This is an amazing location for a small housing community or family compound. The opportunities are great and the surroundings amazing. The property has multiple access points onto Augusta Highway. Buyer to verify anything deemed important.
