Description

Nestled in the heart of Hound Hollow, a highly sought-after equestrian community, this 35-acre property offers an exceptional opportunity for horse enthusiasts, nature lovers, and those seeking a private retreat. With miles of well-maintained riding trails, this community is designed for those who appreciate country living without sacrificing convenience to town. The land itself is a perfect blend of hardwood forests and gently sloping terrain, providing multiple ideal build sites to create your dream home, barn, or equestrian estate. A metal building measuring 30X15 is already in place with electric offering versatile use for storage, workshop space, or future expansion. Along the back property line, a peaceful creek meanders through the landscape, adding to the property's natural beauty. With plenty of space for pasturing, this property is well-suited for horses, livestock, or simply enjoying wide-open spaces. Whether you're looking for a private homestead or investment opportunity, the owner is willing to subdivide into a minimum of 10-acre + tracts, making this a rare and flexible offering in such a desirable community. Enjoy the best of rural tranquility with modern possibilities—contact us today for more details or to schedule a private tour of this exceptional property!
