Description

Welcome to 281 Hawthorne Street--a charming home nestled on nearly half an acre in the highly desirable Bay View Acres neighborhood. From the moment you arrive, you'll be drawn in by the spacious front porch that spans the width of the home, surrounded by seasonal camellias, azaleas, hydrangeas, and beautiful oak trees. Inside, you'll find gorgeous heart pine floors throughout and an open-concept living and dining area anchored by a large fireplace--perfect for cozy evenings or entertaining guests. The living room is filled with natural light and flows seamlessly onto a back deck. The eat-in kitchen includes updated appliances (2019) and opens to a screened porch overlooking the expansive, fenced-in backyard--ideal for relaxing or hosting gatherings. The backyard includes an irrigation system and offers plenty of room for a pool and/or addition if desired. The main level includes one bedroom with an adjoining full bathroom, while upstairs you'll find two additional generously sized bedrooms with ample closet space as well as an additional full bathroom. Both bathrooms were fully renovated in 2019. This home also features Hardiplank siding installed in 2017, adding to its durability and curb appeal. Bay View Acres is a true gem of a neighborhood, offering residents access to a private boat landing with easy entry to Shem Creek and the Charleston Harbor. Enjoy community amenities including a park with tennis courts, basketball hoops, a playground, and outdoor grills. Located at the base of the Ravenel Bridge, this home is just minutes from downtown Charleston and all that Mount Pleasant has to offer as well as 10 minutes to Sullivan's Island beach. Walk to Whole Foods, Harris Teeter, top-rated restaurants, Shem Creek and the iconic Ravenel Bridge. This is Lowcountry living at its best, an adorable home in an unbeatable location.
