Description

Welcome home to Lakeview Commons! Discover the perfect townhome located in the heart of Goose Creek. Those who desire the comforts of home ownership without the hassle of exterior maintenance will love this end unit "Garfield" floor plan, featuring a spacious open floor plan. The downstairs boasts the primary bedroom, a spacious living room, plus an impressive eat-in kitchen complete with a pantry, perfect for entertaining. The kitchen bathes in natural light illuminating from the round-top window, and the ample cabinet and counter space make it perfect for any Chef! Host perfect gatherings or relax in the dining area, located between the kitchen and the living room, or relax after a long day. Vaulted ceilings in the living area make this space feel both cozy and spacious at the same time. The generously sized owner's suite off the living room comes complete with a full ensuite bathroom with dual vanities and a large walk-in closet. Upstairs you'll find a spacious loft overlooking the living area, another bedroom with walk-in closet, and a full bathroom. There's also a covered patio located out back, accessible through the living room, and with the convenience of townhome living, you'll be able to enjoy the outdoors with no concerns of mowing the yard, or pressure washing the house. The side entrance to this end-unit offers an extra level of privacy, and the one-car garage and large driveway provide plenty of space for parking. The neighborhood playground, park, and pool, located near the Lakeview Commons entrance, are just a few of the amenities you and your family will surely enjoy as a resident of this quiet community.
