Description

The Waterfront, Daniel Island's premier riverfront community on the Wando River, offers a lifestyle defined by convenience and modern elegance. This exclusive development features resort-style amenities, including a sparkling pool, private fitness center, covered and private parking, and a rooftop lounge with stunning water views. Residents of The Waterfront enjoy convenient access to shops, restaurants, parks, concerts, and community docks. Memberships are available at the Daniel Island Yacht Club and CareFree Boat Club, while the Daniel Island Ferry provides a scenic and efficient route to downtown Charleston. Dine at The Kingstide, grab a morning coffee at The Dime, and walk to Credit One Stadium for big-name concerts and professional tennis. This top-floor condominium boasts an elegant design featuring one bedroom and one-and-a-half baths. The open-concept layout is bathed in natural light, highlighted by a gourmet kitchen with a quartz island, Bosch appliances, and a gas range. The bright living space flows seamlessly onto a spacious private balcony. The primary suite is a luxurious retreat with a custom walk-in closet, built-ins, and a washer-dryer setup. Premium finishes, including hardwood floors and designer lighting, elevate the interior aesthetic. Residents benefit from convenient elevator or stair access to the rooftop terrace, as well as a serene ground-level courtyard with grill areas. Additional community amenities include a central package and mail room, an expansive lobby, and on-site management. Built in 2021, The Waterfront embodies thoughtful design and an unparalleled lifestyle, offering the very best of Daniel Island living.
