Description

Close to Scenic Hwy 11 and just off Hwy 276 in northern Greenville County, SC, this rustic mountain log cabin is nestled among mature hardwoods and located behind the gate in the Cliff Ridge Community in Caesars Head. Very well maintained, this 'charmer' is offered for sale by the original owners. Lovely stone steps will lead you onto the covered front porch welcoming you to your new mountain hideaway. Just inside the front door, experience the open floor plan and vaulted ceiling that provides a comfortable and cozy atmosphere. Pine floors and the plantation shutters throughout give this cabin a rustic and casual atmosphere. The spacious screened porch is easily accessible from the dining/kitchen area for relaxing, watching wildlife, reading a book, and at an elevation of over 3000 feet, enjoying the cooler mountain temperatures. Make this log cabin your full-time or part-time residence and never worry about losing power because this property has a whole house Generac generator that will give you peace of mind so you never have to worry about being without power. There are 2 bedrooms and 1 full bath on the main level. The attractive staircase from the living area will take you to a 3rd bedroom with its full bath, a perfect setup to use as the primary suite. The oversized 2 car, detached garage has space above that is currently used for storage. However, should you want to do something different, this space can be finished to provide an art studio, 'man cave', or whatever fits your lifestyle. Having a garage, and especially one like this with storage and/or expansion space, is a rare find in a mountain property. Not only does the buyer of this home get a lovely log cabin, but the Cliff Ridge amenities are open to all property owners. The amenities include a rustically elegant clubhouse, playground, two tennis courts with pickleball, a stocked lake and dock for fishing, 2 swimming pools (one heated), and the added security provided by a gated community entry. Most furnishings included. Home is located on 1 ½ lots. HOA fee based on 1 ½ lots.
