Description

The original owner invites you to consider this stunning all-brick Dunbar-built home located in the desirable gated community of Windermere, in award winning LongCreek, where you find luxury and comfort at every turn. This spacious 4-bedroom, 4.5-bathroom home with a 3-car garage has been meticulously updated, featuring freshly painted shutters, front door, and storm door, along with fresh paint throughout the interior. As you enter, you are greeted by newly refinished hardwood floors and soaring high ceilings, creating an inviting and open atmosphere. The great room boasts a cozy fireplace and custom built-ins, perfect for both relaxation and entertaining. The eat-in kitchen is a chef's dream, with granite countertops, white cabinetry, and plenty of space for casual dining. Formal living and dining rooms with decorative molding create an elegant setting for gathering. The owner's suite provides a peaceful sanctuary with new carpet, its own fireplace, and a luxurious private bath featuring a separate shower and soaking tub, separate double vanities, and walk in closet with custom built ins. Upstairs are 3 more bedrooms, one with a private bath. The large FROG with wet bar and full bath adds even more living space for a home office, game room, guest suite or 5th bedroom. Additional features include a full laundry room on main level with tiled floors and built-in cabinetry and soaking sink. Step outside to the fenced backyard, where you can enjoy the views of the #3 green from your paver patio, complete with a built in grill and fireplace—perfect for entertaining. Located just minutes from 2 premier golf courses, Windemere Golf Course and Columbia Country Club, this home provides easy access to both recreation and relaxation. The community itself has a pond, playgrounds, and a recreation area, making this an ideal place to call home.
