Description

Welcome to your dream coastal retreat in Murrells Inlet! This new custom-built raised beach house is ready to be your forever escape or your weekend sanctuary. Nestled on a generous lot, this home offers the luxury of no homeowner association constraints, making it a haven for those who love their boats and recreational vehicles. Featuring four well-appointed bedrooms and three pristine bathrooms, this residence combines modern comfort with unmatched functionality. One bedroom located downstairs is accompanied with a full bath for guests or could easily be used for an in-law suite or serve as a one bedroom studio for rental income. The primary bedroom on the main floor serves as a peaceful retreat after a long day of coastal adventures. The heart of this home, the kitchen, boasts sleek granite countertops, a farmhouse-style sink, and a tankless water heater for endless hot water on demand. Entertain with ease in the expansive living area or enjoy quiet mornings on a breezy elevated deck. Oversized porches with Durable aluminum handrails add a touch of elegance and safety to the exteriors. A considerable storage room downstairs caters to all your storage needs without cluttering your living spaces. Parking? No problem! The raised structure allows plenty of covered parking spaces, perfect for your boat or recreational vehicle. Located close to Wacca Wache Marina and the renowned Murrells Inlet Marsh Walk, this home not only offers majestic settings but also keeps you close to local favorites. Whether you're an avid mariner or someone who appreciates the beauty and tranquility of beachside living, this property promises to be a place where memories are made. So, why just read about it? Experience it for yourself and make it your new coastal abode!
