Description

Step into this beautifully renovated circa 1850s ground-floor condominium, where historic charm meets modern updates. This two-bedroom, one-bath unit boasts original hardwood floors, a decorative fireplace that adds character, and a spacious open-concept kitchen and living area, perfect for entertaining or unwinding. The gracious primary bedroom offers a peaceful retreat, while the private guest room, tucked away down its own hallway, provides added privacy for visitors. Enjoy the convenience of your own private off-street entrances and a private, deeded outdoor parking space. Centrally located in the quiet, high-and-dry Ansonborough neighborhood, you're just steps away from the best shopping on King Street, local grocery stores, and Charleston's finest restaurants. Additional features include a high-efficiency Rinnai hot water heater. This unique home combines historic charm with modern living in one of Charleston's most desirable locations.
