Description

Discover the perfect blend of Lowcountry charm and modern comfort in this beautifully elevated home, nestled in the perfect location at Charleston National. Built with an elevator shaft for future convenience (currently shelved for extra storage), this beautifully maintained home boasts an open and airy floor plan with lots of space for hosting family and friends. This home's timeless appeal is enhanced by details such as crown molding, plantation shutters throughout and beautiful Brazilian Tigerwood flooring extending through a majority of the home. The inviting living room features a soaring vaulted ceiling, cozy fireplace with Carrara marble surround, and built-in shelving, creating a warm and stylish gathering space. Adjacent to the living room is the chef's kitchen featuring.....a Carrara marble backsplash, recessed lighting, great cabinet space and a Samsung oven with warming oven and divider for baking at two temperatures simultaneously. You'll love all of the options for dining from a holiday meal in the formal dining room to a relaxed breakfast in the eat-in kitchen to a quick bite at the breakfast bar. The sunroom offers serene views of the tranquil pond, providing the perfect spot for morning coffee or quiet evenings. The primary suite is a true retreat, complete with a tray ceiling and sitting area overlooking the pond. The spa-like bathroom boasts dual vanities, a freestanding oval tub with surrounding shiplap, separate shower and closet system with dual hamper. Outdoor living is a highlight, with multiple entertainment spaces, including a screened porch, paver concrete fire pit, and a ground-level man cave perfect for gathering with friends or a personal hide-out. The fenced backyard with sprinkler system offers direct access to the pond, adding to the home's peaceful ambiance. The lower level garage boasts ample parking for three-plus vehicles.
